KI SISA

2 Chronicles 24:6 (Joash Repairs the Temple) Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the Lord and by the assembly of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?"

Mark 12:42 (also Luke 21:1-3) Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the people putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny. Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything – all she had to live on."

Nehemiah 10:34 We – the priests, the Levites and the people – have cast lots to determine when each of our families is to bring to the house of our god at set times each year a contribution of wood to burn on the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the Law.

John 13:1-5 It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love. The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

Jeremiah 1:4-5 The word of the Lord came to me saying, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations."

Psalms 106:19-24 At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped an idol cast from metal. They exchanged their Glory for an image of a bull, which eats grass. They forgot the God who saved them, who had done great things in Egypt, miracles in the land of Ham and awesome deeds by the Red Sea. So he said he would destroy them – had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him to keep his wrath from destroying them.

Numbers 5:11-31 The test for an unfaithful wife.

1 Kings 12:25-30 Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went and built up Peniel. Jeroboam thought to himself, "The kingdom will now likely revert to the house of David. If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the Lord in Jerusalem, they will again give their allegiance to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam. After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves. He said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you out of Egypt." One he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan. And this thing became a sin; the people even went as far as Dan to worship the one there.
